WEST ORANGE, NJ (Dec. 2, 2020) – East Brunswick resident Jay Hsu has been appointed a corporate sales representative by Sheldon Gross Realty. In his new position, Hsu’s primary responsibility is supporting the company’s commercial real estate sales and leasing efforts.

Most recently a United Foods Corporation vice president, Hsu has also worked as a sales associate for RE/MAX and has experience in real estate-focused comparative market analysis and property value advisement, as well as development of such documents as listing agreements, purchase agreements, and leases. Fluent in both English and Mandarin Chinese, he’s a graduate of Rutgers University, where he earned a bachelor’s degree in computer science.

“Jay’s experience is extremely broad, so his background in real estate sales is accented by a range of additional skills,” says Sheldon Gross Realty Executive Vice President Jonathan Glick. “I’m confident he’ll have a significant and immediate impact in terms of optimizing our clients’ financial returns.”

Sheldon Gross Realty makes available to clients a particularly wide range of commercial real estate offerings that – along with office, industrial, and retail brokerage – include comprehensive property management services. In addition, the company has expertise in office relocation and regularly provides consulting support.
